CHARACTER: Friendship Basics

Review

Directions: After watching “Character: Friendship Basics”, answer the questions below.

1. What are some hints to starting a conversation with someone you don't know?

Relax, everyone gets nervous

Ask them about themselves

Find common interests

Ask open-ended questions

Don't think about what you will say next – listen to what they have to say

2. What is empathy? Give an example of empathy.

Understanding another's feelings, for example if your friend is happy, you're happy for them or if your friend is sad, then you identify with their sorrow.

3. Why is respect important in a friendship? How do you show respect to your friends?

Answers will vary.

4. What is dependability?

Doing what is expected and following through on your promises.

5. What is reciprocity and how does it apply to friendship?

Reciprocity is something done mutually or in return. In friendship it means there is give and take. Both take interest in each other's interests, are respectful and empathetic of one another, forgive, etc.

6. How shouldn't you end a friendship?

Don't send an e-mail or text message.

Don't have someone else to do it for you.

Don't ignore the person and hope they go away.

7. How should you end a friendship?

Treat the other person with respect (the way you would want to be treated).

Be courteous.

Talk to your friend face to face in private.
